CAMPER EXPECTATIONS

In order for Camp to be safe, fun and enjoyable for everyone, there are expectations of how campers behave in our community. At Camp we expect that everyone, contributes to an emotionally safe environment, contributes to a physically safe environment and respects camp facilities and equipment. To further illustrate our expectations of our camper(s) we have provided a list below.

Contributes to an emotionally safe environment

- Each camper must treat everyone else at camp with respect and consideration.
- Camp will not tolerate intimidation, verbal or physical abuse, or destruction of property.
- Cussing, swearing and foul language is not necessary or acceptable at camp.
- Physical, sexual or suggestive behavior is not appropriate or acceptable at camp.
- Camp is an experience in group living. In order for the camp to run safely and successfully, everyone must cooperate by following camp rules.

Contributes to a physically safe environment

- Cooperate and help out with daily chores (cabin clean-up, activity clean-up, cooking on overnights, packing and unloading).
- Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, smoking or tobacco products are not allowed at camp.
- Guns, knives, sling shots, fireworks or any other kinds of weapons are not allowed at camp.

Respects camp facilities and equipment

- Camp equipment is used appropriately.
- Drawing or writing on camp facilities such as bunk beds, carpet, and bathroom walls is unacceptable.

Personal affects and liability

- We ask that modest clothing and bathing suits are worn while at camp.
- ➔ Please do not send expensive items and clothing to camp, which can be damaged, lost or stolen. We recommend that all items be labeled and identified with the camper's name. Campers will be busy all day, so such items are not necessary, and are often misplaced. AOMS is not responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged items.
- Cell phones are not banned, but we have guidelines. Cell phones are a huge aspect of teenagers' lives. We understand the value and importance of staying connected in their world, but also express a sincere need for respect. Do not take or post unflattering, inappropriate or unwanted pictures or comments. Cell phones should not be used during any of our group activities. There is plenty of "down time" in our schedules if you must check your phone. Beyond that, part of what makes camp a special experience is the bonding that goes on among campers when they're cut off from the outside world. Camper's who don't text their friends at home are more likely to make lasting friendships with other campers. And please remember, we are not responsible for lost or damaged phones.

➔ If at any time during camp these expectations are broken or the Camp Directors feel that a camper's behavior takes away from a positive camping experience, the parent(s) or guardian will be notified and will be required to pick up their child from camp immediately at their own expense.

We have read, discussed and understand the camper expectations.
